REDEFINING SURVIVORSHIP

The Watson Clinic Foundation, in partnership with the Breast Cancer Foundation of Central Florida, are pleased to present this workshop at no cost, featuring board-certified Oncologist-Hematologist Dr. Leonard Gitter, MD and registered dietitian Massiel Gilpin. This event will explore what survivorship truly means beyond completing treatment. When are you a survivor? When does survivorship begin? Participants will redefine survivorship through education, discussion, and creative engagement while discovering resources that support emotional, physical, and social well-being after a breast cancer diagnosis.
