

WATSON CLINIC

Pediatrics

Pediatric Care close to HOME

Nothing matters more than the health of your child. From sick visits to immunizations to routine exams, keeping track of your child's wellness needs can be overwhelming. That's why it's essential to find a pediatrician you can count on.

Board-certified Pediatrician Dr. Jolie Szocki offers convenient appointment availability for new and established patients from Watson Clinic South in Lakeland. With compassion and attentiveness, she addresses your child's healthcare concerns through every stage of their development.

Dr. Szocki's areas of expertise include:

- Benign Hematological Disorders
- Immunizations
- Management of Chronic Conditions including Allergies and ADHD
- Newborn Care
- Sick Visits
- Sports Physicals
- Wellness Visits

Watson Clinic South
1033 N. Pkwy. Frontage Rd. | Lakeland, FL
863-680-7337

WATSON CLINIC

Pediatrics

Dr. Jolie Szocki provides comprehensive care to infants, children, adolescents and young adults from her office at Watson Clinic South in south Lakeland.

Education

- University of the West Indies, St. Augustine, Trinidad, MD
- University of Florida College of Medicine, Jacksonville, FL, Pediatrics, Residency
- University of Florida College of Medicine, Gainesville, FL, Pediatric Hematology and Oncology, Fellowship

Professional Activities & Memberships

- American Board of Pediatrics Certification
- American Association of Pediatrics
- American Society of Pediatric Hematology and Oncology

ACCEPTING NEW PATIENTS

Call 863-680-7337 to schedule an appointment.

Jolie Szocki, MD | Pediatrics

WatsonClinic.com/Szocki

